

STONE CANYON CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION, INC.
RULES AND REGULATIONS
Revised April 26, 2011

These are the Rules and Regulations governing STONE CANYON CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION, INC. They apply to all residents of Stone Canyon, owners and non-owners alike. They are enforceable under our Declaration and Bylaws. The purpose of these Rules and Regulations is to provide our residence with an enjoyable atmosphere in which to live and to enhance the value of, and protect the investment in, the Stone Canyon properties.

Stone Canyon is not an apartment complex where we pay the rent and someone does all the work for us. Rather, it is an association of homeowners and a community of residents who share a common interest. That common interest is to maintain the highest quality of life obtainable for all of our residents.

Remember, to have a good neighbor, you must first be a good neighbor.

GENERAL INFORMATION

1. OFFICE: The Stone Canyon Condominium Association is managed by Hammersmith Management Inc., 5619 DTC Parkway, Greenwood Village, CO 80111. Office hours are 8:00a.m. to 5:00p.m., Monday through Friday.
2. MAINTENANCE: Maintenance of all common areas is provided by contract labor. Repairs inside the unit are the responsibility of the unit owner and not that of the Association.
3. ANNUAL MEETING: The annual meeting of the Association shall be held each year on such date as shall be selected by the Board of Directors. At such meetings, the Members shall transact such business of the Association as shall properly come before the meeting, including election of members of the Board of Directors.
4. FISCAL YEAR: Stone Canyon operates on a fiscal year starting January 1st through December 31st.

The Board of Directors encourages all residents to become involved in and with the management of Stone Canyon. All residents are welcome to attend meetings and serve on the various committees that advise the Board. Information on these committees is available from the Board members or the Management Company. Only through active resident participation can your Association respond to the needs and wishes of its residents. Your individual time, effort and cooperation will not only make Stone Canyon a sound investment, but a pleasant and enjoyable place to live.

49. Owners wishing to lease units must notify the Management Company of Intent to Lease and shall notify the Management of a forwarding address and phone number where said owner can be reached. They shall also provide names and telephone numbers of renters.
50. Each unit leased shall be for a period of time not less than six (6) months.
51. Leasing of a unit for business purposes shall not be permitted.
52. There shall be no more people residing in the unit that would normally be allowed by the applicable local zoning ordinances.
53. Any non-owner residing in any unit shall be subject to these Rules and Regulations including all rights and liabilities contained herein, in the same capacity as would an owner. Any fines incurred by a non-owner of the unit shall be chargeable directly to the unit owner and shall be added to, and shall become due and owing with the regularly scheduled Homeowners Association payment.
54. Each owner shall be responsible for distribution of these Rules and Regulations to all tenants occupying said owner's unit.

COLLECTION OF DELINQUENT ASSESSMENTS

55. All monthly assessments are due and payable on the first of each month. Any assessment not paid within 30 days after the due date shall be subject to a $10.00 late charge for each delinquent payment. If your payment is still delinquent on the 10th day of the second month, you will be notified by letter stating the Association's intent to file a lien. If no response is forthcoming within 10 days from the date the delinquency notice is sent, the account shall be forwarded to the Association attorney, the lien will be filed, and any further legal action deemed necessary will be promptly taken and the delinquent owner shall be responsible for any attorney's fees or costs incurred as well as for the delinquency itself.
56. Should it become necessary to file a lien on a unit, the owner of such unit will be responsible for all legal fees.
57. If any owner allows his or her assessment dues account to become 60 days in arrears, the Association shall have the right to suspend that owner's voting privileges and to suspend the owner's right to use the recreation facilities until such time as the account, including all incidental charges, has been paid up to date.

RULE ENFORCEMENT AND HEARING PROCEDURE

58. Enforcement procedures under these Rules and Regulations may be exercised independently of, or concurrently with, any enforcement actions undertaken by local, county, state, or federal authorities.
59. If the Association brings a legal action to enforce any provision hereof, the violating party shall be subject to liability for costs, expert witness fees, and reasonable attorney's fees.
60. All complaints pertaining to infractions of the Rules and Regulations of Stone Canyon Condominiums must be submitted in writing addressed to the Board of Directors and the Management Company. The complaint must, at a minimum, include the following:
- i. Name or identity of individual(s) committing the infraction.
  - ii. The unit number with whom the individual who has violated these rules is associated and some description of the nature of the relationship, i.e., guest, owner, tenant, etc.
  - iii. The identification of the Rule or provision violated.
  - iv. The date, time, and place of the infraction.
  - v. The name, address and telephone number of the person making the complaint, and a brief description of the complaining individual's relationship to the community (i.e., whether the individual is an owner, tenant, etc.)

61. Complaints against violators of these rules and regulations may be initiated by any homeowner.
62. Upon receipt of a written complaint, the Board and Management Company shall notify the unit owner as well as the person charged with committing the violation (if these parties are separate) that a complaint has been received. The notice shall be sent via regular mail to the last known address of the unit owner and to the unit charged with the violation.
63. At this point in the proceedings, the name of the complainant will not be divulged to anyone who is not a member of the Board.
64. If so desired, the person(s) charged with committing the violation or the owner may request a hearing at the next regularly scheduled Board meeting. Any such request shall be made in writing and shall be submitted directly to the Board.
65. If no hearing is requested, the Board will discuss the complaint considering all aspects, causes, seriousness and/or extenuating circumstances. The presence of a quorum of the Board will be necessary to vote on the action which the Board chooses to take.
66. When the violation is initially discussed by the Board, the Board shall have three options from which to choose:
  - i. Dismiss the complaint.
  - ii. Record the complaint in the record, but delay action upon it until further information is received.
  - iii. Set the matter for a hearing at the next regularly scheduled Board meeting.
  - iv. Regardless of which action the Board chooses to follow, the complainant and the violator will be notified in writing of the action (including a brief statement which reveals why the Board chose to proceed in the manner described in the notice).
67. If the Board chooses to set the matter for a hearing, the complainant will be notified that he/she must attend to give testimony or the complaint will be dismissed.
68. If the Board chooses to set the matter for a hearing, the violator and the owner (if different) shall be notified in writing, with the nature, date, time, and location of the violation. The notification will also set the date and location and a brief description of the hearing procedures which will be provided to the accused individual.
69. Failure by an alleged violator to respond to the formal notice of hearing will be constructed as an admission of the violation.

70. In lieu of actual attendance at the hearing, the violator or the applicable owner shall have fifteen (15) days, from the date the hearing notice was mailed, to respond in writing explaining to the Board why the complaint is unjustified. This response will be considered by the Board during the hearing.

71. Procedures to be followed at the hearing:

- i. The Board will first describe the specific rule or regulations which has been violated, including the date and place of the violation.
- ii. The person being charged shall then be asked to admit or deny the charge. This violator may speak for himself/herself or he/she may be represented by another.
- iii. If the alleged violator denies the charge, he/she shall describe why the complaint should be dismissed.
- iv. No charge shall be upheld without evidence presented at the hearing which indicates that the specific violation occurred.
- v. The accused violator shall have the opportunity to question each witness against him/her at the time those witnesses testify.
- vi. After all the complaining witnesses have been heard, the accused violator shall have the opportunity to make a rebuttal statement refuting the testimony given or a general statement of position.
- vii. The accused violator shall also be permitted to present his/her own witnesses and the complaining witness or members of the Board shall be able to further question these witnesses testifying in support of the accused.
- viii. When all witnesses have been heard, the Board shall discuss the matter in private and then vote as to whether or not to uphold the complaint. Majority vote shall prevail. The result of the vote shall be announced to all those who have attended the hearing.

72. Each violation shall be considered a subsequent violation if it occurs within one year of the last violation of the same rule or provision of the documents by the same individual or owner.

73. The Board may impose an assessment according to the following schedule:

First Offense	Written Notice
Second Offense	$25.00 and Written Notice
Third Offense	$50.00 and Written Notice
Fourth and Subsequent Offense	$100.00 and Written Notice

74. The offenses of the unit owner, his guests and/or tenants shall all be attributable to the unit owner.

75. All decisions reached by the Board concerning violations of these Rules and Regulations shall be final.
76. Any owner or occupant who feels that an amendment of the Rules and Regulations is warranted may submit a request for such a change, in writing, to the Board. The request must indicate the present rule, the proposed amendment or change, and the reasons for that amendment or change.
77. Subsequent to receipt of the request for change, the Board will, at the regularly scheduled meeting, weigh the merits of the proposal. If the proposal is disapproved, the Board will notify the originator of the proposal, in writing, of its decision and the reasons for the disapproval.
78. The originator of the proposal, upon receipt of the notice of rejection, may resubmit that proposal, at the next regularly scheduled Board meeting, for reconsideration. The Board will then hear further arguments and discussions on the proposal and a second vote shall be taken.
79. If the Board approved a proposed amendment, said amendment shall be incorporated into the Rules and Regulations and will be distributed to all members of the Association within thirty (30) days.
80. THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RESERVES THE RIGHT TO MAKE ADDITIONAL RULES AND REGULATIONS AS THEY MAY BE REQUIRED FROM TIME TO TIME WITHOUT THE CONSENT OF THE MEMBERS OF THE ASSOCIATION. THESE ADDITIONAL RULES AND REGULATIONS SHALL BE IMMEDIATELY BINDING ON ALL STONE CANYON RESIDENTS.
